INTERNATIONAL WASHOKU COMPETITION

Purpose of the Competition

Japanese cuisine, "WASHOKU" was registered as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage in 2013. This competition aims to inherit the genuine tradition of WASHOKU across countries and generations and to contribute to the new development and internationalization of WASHOKU through the fusion of unique ingredients and cooking techniques by inviting and fostering talented prospective Japanese chefs from all over the world to Japan.

Eligible applicant

Competition entries are open to all nationalities, regardless of where they reside. Both professionals and amateurs may apply. There is no age limit for entry. Admission to JCI, the supplementary prize, will only be granted to prize winners who are at least 18 years old.

Theme

Create one Japanese main dish that expresses "Japaneseness" of your choice, using ingredients unique to your country. "Japaneseness" can be freely expressed through the ingredients, arrangement, coloring, cooking method, tableware, etc.
Ingredients cost: less than $100 US for 4 people
